

The Revd Sarah Errington

The Revd Sarah Errington has been appointed to the post of Vicar in the Rectorial Benefice of Wrexham, with special responsibility for St John Rhosnesni, in the Diocese of St Asaph, Church in Wales.

No dates have yet been fixed, but she expects to move during the summer holidays. Sarah is very pleased about the move, which will be a good one for her and the family; but they will be very sad to leave St Mary's and St Nicholas'.

Because of Diocesan plans to reduce clergy numbers, Sarah was not given the opportunity to renew her licence here.

The Deanery Mission Plan commits St Mary's and St Nicholas', Halewood, to working as a Cluster with St Hilda's, Hunts Cross, and therefore the three churches – St Mary's, St Nicholas' and St Hilda's – will in future be served by two full-time ordained Anglican clergy. We believe that this situation is unlikely to change in the near future. We will of course continue to be served by our two Readers, Youth and Community Worker, and Methodist Minister, as well as benefitting from our relationships with St Hilda's, the Circuit, and the Deanery.

We pray for God's blessing on Sarah & Steve, Nathan and Joel as they move to their new home, new church, new parish and new school, and for Sarah as she takes up her new post.
