Resurrection (John 20:1-18)

Even in the darkness
Still she went,
Stumbling, longing for light,
Finding a stone-moved emptiness.

Then her running
And the running and out-running of the men,
The believing whilst not understanding,
The tears and the angels with questions and messages.

Death transformed to Life<
In the turning,
And revelation in a name,
Mary!

Lord, sometimes I don't understand
And the world seems dark,
But I choose to turn from darkness to You.

Speak my name Lord,
Hold me safe
In Your resurrection power and light.

MINISTRY MESSAGE

As I write this, I'm looking out of my office window and can see signs of spring and signs of new life. The grass is looking greener and there's flowers appearing. The grip of winter is loosening and spring is here. The change in seasons is a welcome change and it's a reminder that Easter is drawing near. Spring is a season that speaks deeply to both the natural world and our spiritual lives: a time of renewal, hope, and new beginnings.

At the heart of Easter is the story of resurrection. After the sorrow and sadness of Good Friday, we arrive at the joy of Easter Day, when we celebrate that death doesn't have the final word, and that light overcomes darkness. It's a message that has echoed through centuries, offering comfort and strength in times of uncertainty and change.

For many of us, Easter is also woven with familiar traditions: gathering with family, decorating churches with flowers, singing joyful hymns, and perhaps sharing chocolate eggs. These customs, while simple, point to something deeper—the celebration of life renewed and hope restored. At our Easter Experience, we gave each of the children an easter egg to remind them of this promise of new life and as a symbol of hope.

Here in Halewood, Easter isn't only a remembrance of an event long ago, but it's a living invitation. It invites us to reflect on our own lives: where we may need renewal, where hope feels distant, and where we're being called to new beginnings. Just as the empty tomb brought surprise and transformation, so too can Easter bring fresh perspective into our daily lives.

This year, as we come together to celebrate, may we take time to pause and truly embrace the meaning of Easter. Whether through prayer, quiet reflection, or shared worship, Easter offers each of us the opportunity to rediscover hope.

You are warmly invited to join us for our Easter services as we celebrate this joyful season together. Whether you're a regular member of our congregation or visiting for the first time, there's a place for you here.

May this Easter bring you peace, joy, and the promise of new life.

Happy Easter to you all.

Gareth

Live Streaming of services on YouTube

Thanks to some grant funding from Community Foundation Merseyside, we have installed cameras in St Nicholas' to enable us to live stream services on YouTube. The YouTube channel is called St Nicholas St Mary's Halewood Team and the direct link is: <https://bit.ly/halewood-ecumenical>

We are streaming Sunday and Thursday morning services live and it is also available for you to watch later. You may wish to make use of this if you are unable to attend church in person for any reason.

If you subscribe to our YouTube Channel (It's free) it will make it easier to access in future.

Prayers - If you would like us to include someone in prayers on a Sunday morning and/or evening, there is a book at the back of each church to which you can add names. Please ask the duty warden/steward.

Breakfast – with Jesus Christ

"It is the Lord!" (John 21:7) There is something very reassuring in the simple scene by Galilee's lake, described on that post-Easter morning. Taking place there was the birth of a mighty world-wide adventure that has not ended yet! Was there ever a breakfast like it? They'd been fishing all night, but in vain.... until they heard a distant call from the shore: "How are you doing, guys?"

There is even the little detail in the instructions from the beach that it was to be on the right side of the boat that the net should be thrown out this time.

That Stranger. That voice! Suddenly the net was full of wriggling fish. It was like coming in at the start of the film again – (see Luke 5:6). Then Peter's hundred-yard splash to the shore... the charcoal fire and 'large' tilapia fish. Then the typical action of fishermen in counting the catch. How the Bible teems with stories.

And now breakfast on the beach, with Jesus Christ! It was a re-commissioning for the apostle Peter, who only days earlier had denied any knowledge of Jesus. From now on it would be different. "Feed my sheep," said Jesus.

1. Whose call but Christ's call? Peter would never be the same again. Those who have truly heard the call of Christ, will still be standing firm when revolutions explode, when finances plunge, when a church falls apart, when a country falls apart.
2. Whose word but Christ's word? 'Feed my sheep,' were His words. Whoever we may be teaching, Christ's servant is to see to it that what is taught is Christ's word and not one's own. The power that brings forgiveness and resurrection life can only come from one source!
3. Whose flock, but Christ's flock? 'MY lambs... MY sheep' – they were never ours! Realise this – and so much of the conflicts that can occur between the friends of Jesus will cease overnight.

Can you smell the tilapia fish grilling on that little fire by Galilee's beach? The Stranger on the shore is calling YOU. Along with John, dripping wet in the boat, recognise that He is no stranger. "It is the Lord."

Thank you Parish Pump!

PARISH WALK -

NEXT PARISH WALK

The walk for March will take place on Saturday 28th.

We will meet at 10.00 am at the St Nicholas Centre before going to Dobbies for pre walk refreshments. Then we will drive to Clarke Gardens to start our walk.

The walk will go through Allerton Towers and Allerton Golf Course to Calderstones.

It may be muddy in parts so sturdy footwear recommended.

Approximately 5 miles in length.

This will be reported in the May edition of the magazine.

The April walk will take place on 25th April. Details to follow.

Please contact Penni on 07990953334 for further details.

Luke's account of the crucifixion (Luke 23:32-43) emphasises the mocking of the crowd, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself' (35,37,39). In their view a Messiah does not hang on a cross and suffer. In considering the two men who were crucified with Jesus, we are also confronted with the issue of how Jesus secures salvation for us.

The words of one of those crucified with Jesus reflected the crowd's taunts: 'Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us.' He highlights the question of Jesus' identity: how can He save others, when He cannot save Himself from death? He failed to see that the cross itself was the means of salvation.

So – what kind of Messiah was Jesus?

The other criminal's response in his last moments is a moving expression of faith. When challenging the other man, he spoke of the utter injustice of the crucifixion: 'this man has done nothing wrong.' He perceived the truth that Jesus was indeed the Messiah. In a wonderful picture of grace, 'remember me when You come into Your kingdom', the second thief confessed his guilt and secured Jesus' forgiveness and mercy.

In reply, Jesus promised the man life from the moment of death; 'Today you will be with Me in paradise.' Jesus used the picture of a walled garden to help the man understand His promise of protection and security in God's love and acceptance eternally.

Each one of us has to choose how we react to Jesus on the cross. Do we want Him to 'remember' us when He comes into His kingdom, or not? If you were to die tonight, how confident would you be of going to be with Jesus? 'For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God' (1 Peter 3:18).

Thank you Parish Pump!

My New Car

My old car was a little tired;
It failed its MOT!
So then it was I felt inspired
To go PHEV.

It is a good car - nice to run
And helpful as can be!
But now my troubles have begun -
It's cleverer than me!

I used to press a button once
For music on CD
But now - I must be such a dunce -
I can't find BBC!

I got it playing from my phone
By Bluetooth link maybe?
But then what truly made me moan -
I spoke - it misheard me!

It turned my lovely music off
And played some awful sound;
I tried to speak, I tried to cough
But no way back I found!

So if you want to buy a car
To get from A to B,
Don't forget you first require
A technical degree!
