- Care for and monitor any member of the church community who may pose a risk to children and adults whilst maintaining appropriate confidentiality and the safety of all parties.
- Ensure that health and safety policy, procedures and risk assessments are in place and that these are reviewed annually.

Each person who works within this church community will agree to abide by this policy and the guidelines established by this church.

The care and protection of children, young people and vulnerable adults involved in Church activities is the responsibility of the whole Church. Everyone who participates in the life of the Church has a role to play in promoting a Safer Church for all.

The Church of England and the Methodist Church work jointly together on many aspects of safeguarding policy on a covenant basis. Together we are jointly committed to:

- The care, nurture of, and respectful pastoral ministry with, all children, young people and all adults
- The safeguarding and protection of all children, young people and all adults
- The establishment of safe, caring communities which provide a loving environment where victims of abuse can report or disclose abuse and where they can find support and best practice that contributes to the prevention of abuse.

As a Church of England and Methodist Local Ecumenical Partnership we recognise and acknowledge the safeguarding best practice and experience from both denominations, particularly where that practice has been jointly developed. In keeping with best practice for Local Ecumenical Partnerships, we have opted to follow one set of denominational safeguarding policies. The Halewood Ecumenical Team follow the Church of England Safeguarding Policy and Procedures but fully recognise the Methodist Procedures and requirements as it relates to Methodist staff and Circuit and District personnel.
